Temporary Use Permit Processing Guide

Please note: Temporary Use Permit applications take a minimum of 20 calendar days to process once the application is deemed complete. Please submit your application far enough in advance of the event or activity to allow for permit processing. The permit process may take longer should the Community Development Director's decision be appealed or if the Community Development Director refers the review of the application to the Planning Commission. Applicants must also provide mailing labels detailed below.

Processing Timeline

- Step 1 Complete application is submitted to the Community Development Department for processing. Within 10 days of submitting a complete application, the Community Development Director will decide on the TUP request or refer the application to the Planning Commission.
- Step 2 The Community Development Department will mail notices of the application and the Director's or Planning Commission decision to the applicant and adjacent property owners and neighbors. Any aggrieved party may file an appeal of the Community Development Director's decision within 10 calendar days from the date of action pursuant to Carpinteria Municipal Code Chapter 14.78. Should the application be reviewed by the Planning Commission, the process will require more than 20 days to process.
- Step 3 If no appeal is filed within 10 calendar days, the Director's or Planning Commission's decision will become final.
- Step 4 If an appeal is filed, the Director's or Planning Commission's decision will be voided pending review and decision by the Planning Commission or City Council. The appeal would be heard at the next available Planning Commission or City Council meeting.

Step 1	10-day review period	Step 2	10-day appeal period	Step 3
