

City of Carpinteria

COUNCIL AGENDA STAFF REPORT November 23, 2020

ITEM FOR CONSIDERATION

Authorization for the City Manager, on behalf of the City of Carpinteria ("City"), to initiate contract negotiations for consultant services with the National League of Cities' Racial Equity & Leadership group ("NLC REAL") and Just Communities Central Coast ("Just Communities") to assist the City in developing a racial equity and social justice program ("Racial Equity and Social Justice Program").

STAFF RECOMMENDATION

Action Item X ; Non-Action Item

Authorize the City Manager, on behalf of the City, to initiate contract negotiations for consultant services with NLC REAL and Just Communities to assist the City in developing a Racial Equity and Social Justice Program.

Sample Motion: I move to authorize the City Manager, on behalf of the City, to initiate contract negotiations for consultant services with NLC REAL and Just Communities to assist the City in developing a Racial Equity and Social Justice Program.

BACKGROUND

On June 8, 2020, in response to recent instances of police brutality and unjustified killings of Black people and people of color throughout the United States, the City Council adopted Resolution No. 5981 (see Attachment A), whereby the City made several key commitments which can be organized into the following three general categories:

- (1) Committing to collaborate with law enforcement to further community-oriented policing, build trust with the community and ensure the safety of all community members (see Resolution No. 5981, § 4); and
- (2) Committing to review and revise City policies to incorporate antiracist policies into City government and ensure the equitable distribution of resources and public services (see Resolution No. 5981, § 6); and
- (3) Collaborating with, supporting, and amplifying minority-owned businesses, community groups and non-profit organizations within the City and broader community (see Resolution No. 5981, § 7).

At its regular meeting of June 22, 2020, the City Council received a report on next steps for implementing Resolution No. 5981. The report expanded on options to align with the commitments identified in Resolution No. 5981 and provided specific actions that may be necessary to support related objectives of furthering racial equity and social justice. During a subsequent meeting on July 13, 2020, the City Council received a report from staff detailing the options available for forming one or more committees to assist the City with development and implementation of a Racial Equity and Social Justice Program.

To begin implementing Resolution No. 5981 commitments, on August 10, 2020, the City Council formed a City Council Ad hoc Racial Equity and Social Just Committee (Ad hoc Committee) and appointed Councilmembers Clark and Shaw to serve on it. The Ad hoc Committee is tasked with (1) researching and recommending to the City Council a consultant to assist the City with implementing its Resolution No. 5981 commitments; (2) working with the consultant to develop a process, schedule, and budget for this work; and (3) further defining the role of a subsequent committee consisting of City Councilmembers and community stakeholders (referred to by the placeholder title of "Blue Ribbon Committee").

Upon completion of these initial tasks, it is envisioned that the Ad hoc Committee will be disbanded and the Blue Ribbon Committee will be formed to continue the City's progress in this area and will include two councilmembers as well as community stakeholders. It is expected that consultant support will continue to be needed for the work of the Blue Ribbon Committee to, in part, institutionalize the work through establishment of an ongoing City Racial Equity and Social Justice Program.

On September 2, 2020, the City issued a Request for Qualifications ("RFQ") seeking qualified individuals or groups to assist the City in implementation of a Racial Equity and Social Justice Program consistent with the City's commitments in Resolution No. 5981 ("RFQ"). (See Attachment B.)

The City received responses to the RFQ from NLC REAL, and Just Communities (see Attachment C). The responses were reviewed and considered by the Ad hoc Committee at its October 6, 2020 meeting and directed staff to conduct follow-up interviews with both groups. At its November 17, 2020 meeting, the Ad Hoc Committee reviewed and considered staff's recommendation to pursue negotiations with both consultants.

Based on the discussion at its November 17, 2020 meeting, the Ad hoc Committee is recommending that the City Council authorize the City Manager to engage in negotiations for agreements with both NLC REAL and Just Communities on different aspects of the planned work. Once that process is concluded, it is expected that proposed consultant services agreements will be brought before the City Council, along with related budget allocation actions, for consideration of approval.

DISCUSSION

The City Council Ad hoc Committee has concluded that based on each consultant's assets, areas of specialty and experience, NLC REAL and Just Communities can provide complimentary consultant services that would assist the City in its planned work. Because of this, the Ad hoc Committee is recommending engaging with both NLC REAL and Just Communities to work collaboratively to help the City implement its commitments made in Resolution No. 5981, and the establishment of a City Racial Equity and Social Justice Program.

Based on the responses to the RFQ and related interviews with consultants, the Ad hoc Committee is recommending an approach to the work of advancing equity through the City organization that includes (a) engaging with the community in a manner to inform City policy and systems change, (b) assessing City policies, programs and services for inequities and illuminating them through data and effective communication, and (c) building City capacity to advance equity through training, tools and technical assistance.

Collaborative consultant support for the City's work to advance equity would include NLC REAL facilitating the internal "City" piece of this work effort, including developing and implementing assessments (both on a staff and institutional level), providing trainings, and providing some low- to medium- level of technical assistance and organizational capacity building. As a locally-based group with pre-existing ties to the community, Just Communities would be engaged to assist the City on the community aspect of the work, including mapping stakeholders, forming and staffing the community-driven Blue Ribbon Committee, developing and analyzing data and other indicators in order to evaluate the effectiveness of the City's efforts, and making subsequent recommendations for adapting the City's approach.

Both organizations have agreed to work collaboratively. Should the Council approve of this approach, agreements, including cost proposals, will be negotiated in detail and brought back to the City Council at a regular meeting (likely in January) for consideration and action.

FINANCIAL CONSIDERATIONS

At this stage, City staff has not begun negotiating a contract with either NLC REAL or Just Communities and can thus only provide a rough cost estimate for this work. Based on staff's review of the requested work items, draft hourly and programmatic costs provided by both consultant groups, and initial draft budgets, staff believes that direct costs associated with the recommended action (for work undertaken pursuant to the consultant services agreements) will be approximately $100,000 in the first year with less consultant costs in future years. Consultant support forming and establishing the City's Racial Equity and Social Justice Program is expected to be needed for three years.

As stated above, once negotiations conclude, staff plans to return to the City Council with a not-to-exceed amount and a corresponding budget appropriation request. At this point, staff envisions recommending any requested budget allocation to pay for consultant support come from the City's Measure X Fund balance, which is currently just under $3 million.

Going forward, the approach being recommended is expected to result in the establishment of a new Racial Equity and Social Justice Program. Because the scope of the program has yet to be determined, ongoing programmatic costs cannot be understood at this time; however, carrying out such a program would result in costs to the City for direct staff support as well as administration.

LEGAL AND RISK MANAGEMENT CONSIDERATIONS

The City Attorney's Office has worked closely with City staff on this matter and will be available at the meeting to answer any questions. Upon the City Council's direction, the City Attorney's Office also plans to work closely with staff to draft any contracts or agreement with consultants.

OPTIONS

1. Approve the staff recommendation that staff negotiate agreements with NLC REAL and Just Communities.
2. Provide direction to staff related to an alternative approach (should this option be pursued, staff anticipates the schedule to come before the City Council with a recommendation would be extended).

A RESOLUTION OF THE CITY COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF CARPINTERIA, CALIFORNIA CONDEMNING THE UNJUSTIFIED USE OF FORCE AND BRUTALITY USED AGAINST BLACK PEOPLE AND PEOPLE OF COLOR BY LAW ENFORCEMENT AND STANDING IN SOLIDARITY WITH NON-VIOLENT PROTESTORS OF RACIAL INJUSTICE AROUND THE COUNTRY

WHEREAS, the City of Carpinteria ("City") is horrified by the recent instances of police brutality and unjustified killings of Black people and people of color in the United States; and

WHEREAS, the City strongly denounces and condemns the recent unjustified killing of George Floyd and thousands of other Black people and people of color across the nation, and condemns all acts of racism, police brutality, racial profiling, and use of excessive force; and

WHEREAS, such killings highlight a history of systemic racism, trauma, and injustice to which many people of color, but in particular the Black community, have been subjected; and

WHEREAS, Santa Barbara County ("County") history itself is colored by the legacies of slavery, in that the County's first Black resident, Jerry Forney, was a slave; and

WHEREAS, the City is not immune from a history of injustice and racism, including once being a city with racially-segregated schools; and

WHEREAS, unjust use of force and brutality by law enforcement undermines community trust in the justice system and compromises important and necessary collaborative work between law enforcement, the justice system, and racial minorities in our communities; and

WHEREAS, marginalized communities, including LGBTQ+ individuals, immigrants, and those with disabilities, are also more likely to be subjected to unjust treatment by law enforcement; and

WHEREAS, the City stands in solidarity with non-violent protestors across the country who are demanding a more just nation, and recognizes the important role that such protests have played—and will continue to play—in our history to affect necessary change; and

WHEREAS, the City believes that steps to address racism and create a more just and inclusive society begin with community commitment, expressed by policies enacted at the local level; and

WHEREAS, the City's Mission Statement reflects the foundational importance of equity and inclusion in the provision of local government services and in the fulfillment of our commitment to democracy, and the City is proud of our history of condemning racial injustice and hate crimes, as expressed in Resolution No. 5938, the Resolution Condemning White Nationalism and White Supremacy; and

WHEREAS, as elected community leaders, the City Council recognizes the importance of ensuring that government, including the justice system and law enforcement, is held to the highest standards and actively works to recognize and counteract both systemic racism and unconscious bias; and

WHEREAS, the City recognizes that government authority and all citizens should work together to promote and protect equal justice under law, to work collaboratively, celebrating both our differences and our common commitment, and to bring all Americans together in unity to achieve these ends; and

WHEREAS, the City welcomes and serves immigrants, visitors, and people of all national origins, ethnicities, religious beliefs, gender and racial identities, sexual orientations, and creeds; and

WHEREAS, the City Council supports policies and efforts that reflect and uphold its commitment to public safety and to realizing a diverse, equal, and just community within our City, the County, and the nation as a whole.

NOW, THEREFORE, THE CITY COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF CARPINTERIA RESOLVES:

Section 1. The recitals above are true and correct.

Section 2. The City condemns police brutality and unjustified use of force.

Section 3. The City will not tolerate racism.

Section 4. The City will continue to work collaboratively with our local law enforcement to build community trust and legitimacy, implement community-oriented policing, and maintain a safe community as exemplified in specific provisions in the City's law enforcement contract.

Section 5. The City recognizes that police brutality and systemic racism impacting and traumatizing Black people and people of color in our country demands urgent and sustained attention, action and change in the institutions of our society, including transparency and accountability from local government and common commitment by all citizens.

Section 6. The City recognizes that as a community we have to actively work to be anti-racist, including educating ourselves, better supporting leaders and institutions who are working to combat injustice and systematic racism, and working together toward the more equitable distribution of resources and public services. We commit to continuing to learn about, reflect on, and incorporate anti-racist policies into City government, and strengthen a climate incompatible with racism in our community and nation.

Section 7. To accomplish the goals of this Resolution, the City will highlight and collaborate with minority leadership and social justice groups. The City commits to developing resources that support and amplify minority-owned businesses, community groups and non-profit organizations within our City and broader community.

Section 8. The City commits to both learning from other leaders and providing leadership on these critical issues in Carpinteria.

REQUEST FOR QUALIFICATIONS FOR CONSULTANT TO ASSIST CITY IN DEVELOPING RACIAL EQUITY AND SOCIAL JUSTICE PROGRAM

Issued: September 2, 2020

Response Deadline:
September 25, 2020 (5:00 P.M.)

ADDRESS ALL QUALIFICATION STATEMENTS TO:

INTRODUCTION

The City of Carpinteria (“City”) issues this Request for Qualifications (“RFQ”) seeking qualified individuals or groups (“Consultant”) to assist the City in implementation of a racial justice and social equity program consistent with the City’s commitments in Resolution No. 5981. (See Attachment A.) Specifically, through its adoption of Resolution No. 5981, the City Council committed the City (1) collaborate with law enforcement to further community-oriented policing, build trust with the community and ensure the safety of all community members, (2) review and revise City policies to incorporate anti-racist policies into City government and ensure the equitable distribution of resources and public services, and (3) collaborate with, support, and amplify minority-owned businesses, community groups and non-profit organizations within the City and broader community (jointly referred to herein as the City’s “Resolution No. 5981 Commitments”).

To begin implementing its Resolution No. 5981 Commitments, on August 10, 2020, the City Council formed an ad hoc racial equity and social justice program planning committee (“Ad Hoc Planning Committee”) which is tasked with (1) researching and recommending to the City Council a Consultant to assist the City with implementing its Resolution No. 5981 Commitments, (2) working with the Consultant to develop a process, schedule, and budget for this work, and (3) further defining the role of a subsequent committee consisting of City Councilmembers and community stakeholders (“Blue Ribbon Committee”).

Upon completion of these initial tasks, it is envisioned that Ad Hoc Planning Committee will be disbanded and the Blue Ribbon Committee will be formed to continue the City’s progress in this area. It is the City’s intention that the Consultant will continue to work with the Blue Ribbon Committee to assist the City in implementation of its Resolution No. 5981 Commitments. The City envisions that one of the first steps will be developing and facilitating a community survey to identify individuals and stakeholders to participate in the Blue Ribbon Committee. Once the Blue Ribbon Committee is fully staffed, the City will also need assistance developing a process to institutionalize the City’s racial equity and social justice work such that it becomes a programmatic part of the City’s business (“Racial Equity and Social Justice Program”). The City anticipates that this set of work with the Blue Ribbon Committee may require a subsequent contract based on the directions provided by the Blue Ribbon Committee and stakeholder engagement.

BACKGROUND

As part of the City’s efforts to recognize, confront, and mitigate systemic racism, the City is putting forth this RFQ to formally initiate the process by which the City will implement its commitments made in Resolution No. 5981, including development of a Racial Equity and Social Justice Program. As discussed above, this process is likely to occur in various stages. While not included in the scope of this RFQ, the City notes the potential for the Consultant to partner with the City on a longer-term basis to help the City continue its Racial Equity and Social Justice Program planning and efforts.

The City recognizes the value and many contributions of local individuals, organizations, and institutions that have long been working in our region to address social and racial equity. While this RFQ and the ultimate selection of the Consultant is part of a public, ongoing process, the City welcomes and encourages local individuals and groups with such experience to respond and recognizes the value of local capacity and experience working within our community.

BACKGROUND ON THE CITY OF CARPINTERIA

The City was incorporated in 1965 as a “General Law” city governed by an elected five-member city council. Carpinteria is a relatively small coastal city of 2.59 square miles in Santa Barbara County, with a population of fewer than 14,000 individuals. The City is home to well-known beaches, mountain views and a diverse economy including strong tourism and agriculture as well as light industry and research and development. Race and Hispanic origin based upon the 2018 American Community Survey’s five-year estimates data profiles are as follows (percentages noted below are race alone or in combination with one or more other races unless otherwise specified): 45% Hispanic or Latino, 79.4% White, 4.8% Asian, 1% American Indian and Alaska Native, 0.5% Black or African American, 0.2% Native Hawaiian and Other Pacific Islander. The City is also home to 38.2% of persons who speak a language other than English at home, 10.5% are persons with a disability, and 4.5% of all families and people whose income in the past 12 months is below the poverty level.

The City provides a range of municipal services including law enforcement, land use, development review and permitting; construction and maintenance of City streets, storm drains, bridges and similar infrastructure type assets; park maintenance and recreation program; and general administration. The City contracts the law enforcement services with County of Santa Barbara Sheriff Department.

RFQ RESPONSE REQUIREMENTS

The City welcomes all Consultants to submit responses to this RFQ. The City will review and assess responses based on the Consultant’s experience and how well the responses address the City’s goals and objectives to implement its Resolution No. 5981 Commitments, develop a process, schedule, and budget for this work, and further define the role of the Blue Ribbon Committee.

RFQ Resolution No. 5981 Commitments 2020:

September 25, 2020

Dave Durlinger
City Manager
City of Carpinteria
5775 Carpinteria Avenue
Carpinteria, CA 93013

Dear Dave,

The National League of Cities (NLC), through its Race, Equity And Leadership (REAL) department, is excited to submit this proposal to the City of Carpinteria, California, to provide Training, Technical Assistance, and Capacity Building in support of the city's goals for racial equity and social justice. We support Carpinteria's expressed commitment to this important work. By issuing this RFQ, the city has affirmed the importance of balancing local government leadership and community engagement to address systemic and structural inequities. Our experience suggests that improving the racial equity in these systems and structures requires political will, a readiness among all participants to not do business as usual, and commitment from top local leaders, public agencies, civil society, and the community.

In 2014, NLC recognized that we needed to help cities understand racial disparities and look at the systems in their local governments that make things worse. REAL was created so that NLC could establish and grow the expertise to work with city leaders to help eliminate racial disparities and restore trust among citizens.

In partnering with the National League of Cities (NLC), the City of Carpinteria will receive the collective expertise of our work during the past five years. We look forward to partnering with you to engage in this work.

In accordance with your RFQ outline and instructions, we are excited to submit this proposal for consideration the City of Carpinteria.

EXPERIENCE

REAL's mission is to strengthen local government leaders' knowledge and capacity to eliminate racial disparities, heal racial divisions, and build more equitable communities. REAL does this through several intervention channels and support systems with the understanding that local government leaders may not know where or how to start. REAL has three strategic areas to support cities:

1. Provide Training & Technical Assistance that builds the capacity of local government leaders to identify racial disparities and effectively challenge and address issues through policy and practice.
2. Offer Network Building opportunities that promote peer-to-peer learning and showcase local government leaders who are advancing efforts through REAL.
3. Establish a Field of Practice that leverages new and existing partnerships, and shares knowledge and resources across cities that promote innovative solutions to racial equity challenges in local government.

All of our workshops include:

- Interactive and experiential components. Adult learning styles vary. We use varied forms (including exercises and small group discussions) to share information to ensure learning objectives are met.
- Explicit conversation and facilitation to illuminate the connection between individual, institutional, and structural racism. Our training methodology allows participants to make connections between individual experiences and the broader societal and structural ways in which race is constructed. We focus on institutional and structural strategies, as those are most effective for leveraging change.
- Strong, expert facilitation. Conversations about race can sometimes be difficult. We have a team of expert facilitators who are prepared to lead and guide conversation and to re-design activities in the moment to ensure participants' time and experience is maximized.
- Applying learning. Racial equity concepts can, at times, be abstract. Our workshops focus on the application of learning in the workplace. Doing is often the best teacher.

REAL recognizes the importance of responding to unique situations. Context matters. We tailor workshops and learning activities to best meet the needs of participants and organizations. All of our workshops are informed by:

- Context setting to understand how best to tailor content and exercises
- Background research to ensure content is relevant and focused on connections between institutional and structural change
- Interviews with a selection of participants to ensure design meets needs and expectations of participants

We understand that Carpinteria is ready to move forward to integrate equity as a value that is put into action. Leadership and staff must normalize racial equity as a key value and have clear understanding and shared definitions, operationalize equity via new policies and by transforming the underlying culture of our organizations, and finally, organize, both internally and in partnership with other institutions and the community.

The elements, deliverables, and actions are based on our understanding of your desired direction for an initial scope of services, with specific attention to the leadership, staff, and elected officials. We are strong believers in co-design; if any of our proposed options is either more, or less extensive than your desired direction, we would welcome the opportunity to adjust our scope to meet the scale of your expectations. If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact me or Jordan Curry Carter at Carter@nlc.org.

WORK APPROACH AND SCHEDULE

SCOPE OF SERVICES

The REAL team brings a wealth of substantial relevant experience and expertise, including leadership engagement; implementation of a comprehensive racial equity process; analysis of city infrastructures for advancing racial equity; training; and access to racial equity and racial healing experts and resources.

We describe here the key contributions REAL will make to support the racial equity work in Carpinteria.

Initial Consultation

NLC REAL will schedule a three-hour virtual meeting with Carpinteria leadership team. The meeting will be an opportunity to review and clarify expectations for the city's commitment to advancing racial equity.

Design and Conduct Assessment

REAL offers a range of assessment opportunities for cities to establish an understanding of the context for action that is essential for building an effective institutional transformation strategy. While this proposal does not include any assessment options, REAL looks forward to exploring the value and possibility of assessment work in future phases.

Racial Equity Training

REAL offers a four-part training series on racial equity. For this proposal, REAL will design an initial training, referred to as REAL 101. The session will be subject to modification based on new learning or developments from conversations with the leadership team.

The overall training series is designed around four key objectives:

1. Understand promising practices in local government to advance racial equity
2. Develop a shared understanding and common definitions for advancing racial equity
3. Identify opportunities to use a racial equity tool and data to drive results
4. Build an internal infrastructure for racial equity that includes opportunities to partner with the community

REAL 101: Understanding Racial Equity in Local Government

This session provides an introductory overview for city leaders on the history of institutional and structural racism in America. This training will equip leaders with a shared language for racial equity, examine existing racial disparities in the city and its implication for advancing racial equity. REAL 101 introduces important concepts and tools for organizing and operationalizing racial equity.

Key learning topics: equity versus equality, implicit and explicit bias, individual and institutional bias, levels of racism, racial equity tools, disaggregating data, community engagement strategies

Plan and Host a Virtual REAL Talk Community Conversation Series

The REAL team can also work closely with the city and key community partners to host a REAL Talk series, which engages city and community leaders in a series of healthy and authentic conversations on race and draw conclusions from these conversations in order to make appropriate recommendations to City Council.

The REAL team will co-design, develop and organize a replicable approach/model for engaging a catalytic segment of Carpinteria neighbors to embody in attitude and action the identified culture traits that promote equity, inclusion, racial healing and relational trust.

Meetings will be organized to facilitate healthy community conversations by employing effective practices that cultivate both deep appreciation and understanding of the values of hospitality, respect, inclusion, justice and dignity and advancing equity in key topical areas (i.e., education, jobs, and economic development). This approach will also reflect intent for significant collaboration and appropriate integration or alignment with kindred initiatives in Carpinteria and other existing community-driven efforts.

The REAL Talk Community Conversations will also incorporate opportunities for participants to review, understand and reflect on local disparities in human outcomes as measured by city data. In reviewing Carpinteria's data disaggregated by race, participants will begin to understand trends and disparities in the city that have differential impacts by race. These conversations will also develop opportunities to engage with community members regarding their own understanding and insights of the data and the root causes of these disparities that will inform the data analysis efforts.

The number of hosting/convening organizations & structure of the series of REAL Talk Community Conversations will be appropriately scaled to fit "capacity" and to ensure quality of process and outcomes, transparency and the optimal experience of all participants. A host organization is one who convenes the community conversations at their facility. A convening organization provides support, leadership for a community conversation convened at a public or more central facility.

REAL Talk Community Conversations with community leaders: Anticipated areas to include but not limited to are:

1. Narrative Change- examining how to create and distribute new narratives in communications, digital and social media, monuments and parks and in the way we communicate that can influence people's perspectives, perceptions and behaviors about and toward one another.
2. Racial Healing and Relationship Building- focusing on ways for all of us to heal from the wounds of the past, to build mutually respectful relationships across racial and ethnic lines that honor and value each person's humanity, and to build trusting intergenerational and diverse community relationships that better reflect our common humanity.
3. Segregation/Separation- examining and finding ways to address segregation, colonization and concentrated poverty in neighborhoods to ultimately ensure equitable access to health, education and jobs.
4. Local Economy: studying structured inequality and barriers to economic opportunities and recommending approaches that can create an equitable society.

Debrief on Capacity Building

Normalizing conversations about race includes developing and sharing a racial equity framework as well as operating with urgency and accountability. REAL will debrief with the leadership team and make recommendations for developing an Interdepartmental Racial Equity Team drawn from across all departments that will sustain the engagement and build leadership that can facilitate greater commitment to advancing racial equity throughout the jurisdiction. The training that REAL offers is more effective when it is balanced with technical assistance and the capacity building of the leadership team and the Interdepartmental Racial Equity Team that is created and responsible for ensuring the sustainability of the city's commitment to advancing racial equity.

Ongoing Racial Equity Consultation

In addition to the debrief and recommendations for establishing an Interdepartmental Racial Equity Team to sustain the racial equity work, REAL will offer consultation on ways to develop a shared analysis of how work within the city should proceed. There are four assessments that the Racial Equity Team can consider:

Survey of Staff.

Key to program design and implementation is the collection of data from a broad cross-section of jurisdiction employees to understand perspectives on racial equity, areas of momentum upon which new work can be built, and places where challenges need be addressed. REAL will work with Carpinteria leadership and staff to review, refine, and customize any instruments (i.e., surveys) used in collecting data. The initial survey process is often foundational, allowing for bi-annual redelivery of the instrument to track progress over time.

Institutional Assessment.

As part of the training process, the city team is provided with an assessment continuum that can be used to chart the progress toward creating an equitable workplace. The continuum is employed during the training cycle.

Stakeholder Mapping.

REAL works closely with local community partners to assess, design, and develop an approach for engaging a catalytic segment of community leaders to embody in attitude and action the traits that promote racial equity and racial healing. The approach will reflect an intent for significant collaboration and appropriate integration or alignment with kindred initiatives that may already exist in the school districts, faith institutions, business sector, or community organizations.

Data Governance.

An initial assessment will be provided that examines what data across agencies is collected and disaggregated by race and ethnicity. Analysis will be provided on the available disaggregated data to identify potential patterns disparities. Recommendations will also be offered for improvements to infrastructure and processes to support disaggregation of data by race and ethnicity, including potential framing questions for discussion with city department leaders.

In addition, REAL can identify opportunities for the Racial Equity Team to design a more robust training series that includes a "train the trainer" option. The summary of what the additional trainings and key learning topics could include is provided below.

REAL 201: Advancing Racial Equity in Local Government

This session will explore the implications and impacts of institutional and structural racism for the city. City leaders will spend a significant amount of time learning about how to use a racial equity tool as they explore structural changes to daily operations, budgeting, communications, community engagement and decision-making.

Key learning topics: institutional and structural racism, racial equity tools, racial equity goals, community engagement strategies, head versus heart strategies, inside versus outside strategies, communication tools for talking about race

- Using a Racial Equity Tool – Instruction and practice on how to use a racial equity toolkit within policy, program, and budget decision-making processes. Participants will gain skills by using the tool with their own lines of business that they would like to assess from a racial equity perspective.
- Communicating for Racial Equity – Communicating about race can sometimes be a challenge, but preparation and strategy make a big difference. This training provides tools for both interpersonal communication and communicating with the media and broader outside audiences.

REAL 301 & 302: Taking an Operational Approach to Advancing Racial Equity

This final two sessions will be an opportunity for city leaders to review the subject matter identified from the past session and current issues shared during the sessions. City leaders will learn and apply the racial equity tool to these priorities and determine an approach for advancing racial equity in the city that aligns with the taskforce and could include the development a racial equity plan.

Key learning topics: Racial equity tools, racial equity goals, racial equity plan, case studies

- Developing a Racial Equity Action Plan – Developing a Racial Equity Action Plan entails putting ideas and understanding into action, including building organizational infrastructure across the breadth (all functions) and depth (up and down hierarchy), using a Racial Equity Tool, and developing and implementing strategies.
- Tools for Organizational Change – This workshop provides hands-on exercises to discuss moving organizational change within government. Content is tailored to meet participants' needs, and includes stakeholder analysis, power and politics, and tipping point theory.

Company Overview and Experience

Just Communities advances justice by building leadership, fostering change, and dismantling all forms of prejudice, discrimination, and oppression.

Organizational Overview: Just Communities

Just Communities Central Coast is a nonprofit organization based in Santa Barbara, CA. Founded in 2001 as a local chapter of the National Conference for Community and Justice (NCCJ), Just Communities has an 18-year track record of providing innovative educational and organizational change programs that help people, groups, organizations, and communities understand, talk about, and take action on issues of diversity, inclusion, and equity. Though our primary area of service is in the Tri-county region of California's Central Coast, we have worked with organizations across California and the nation and we are a recognized leader in the field. We combine an intersectional approach to issues of identity and equity with expertise in human and organization development that allows the people, organizations, and communities we work with to successfully engage in personal, organizational, and systemic change.

Just Communities is unique in that it is one of the few organizations working with local schools, government agencies, law enforcement, health care systems, and other nonprofits to facilitate systems level changes that improve outcomes for all members of our community. The past few years we have been focused on providing training for the private sector to develop a common language around diversity, equity, inclusion & justice (DEIJ). We have worked with the Government Alliance on Racial Equity to Support jurisdictions that are at the forefront of work to advance racial equity, with the goal to:

- 1) Build pathways for new jurisdictions to begin doing racial equity work, including cohorts of new jurisdictions.
- 2) Expand and strengthen local and regional collaborations that are broadly inclusive and focused on achieving racial equity.

Government's proactive work has the potential to leverage significant change, setting the stage for the achievement of racial equity in our communities. Supporting targeted cohorts of jurisdictions and providing best practices, tools and resources is helping to build and sustain current efforts and build a national movement for racial equity.

Highlights:

- Advancing Racial Equity: The Role of Institutions – an introduction to the role, responsibilities and opportunities for government to advance racial equity with a focus on normalizing racial equity as a core value with clear definitions of key terminology, operationalizing racial equity via new policies and institutional practice, and organizing, both internally and in partnership with other institutions and the community.
- Using a Racial Equity Tool – instruction and practice on how to use a racial equity toolkit within policy, program and budget decision-making processes.
- Communicating for Racial Equity – Communicating about race can sometimes be a challenge, so the session identifies tools for both interpersonal communication and communicating with the media and broader outside audiences.
- Developing a Racial Equity Action Plan – introduces how to put ideas and understanding into action, including building organizational infrastructure across the breadth (all functions) and depth (up and down hierarchy), and developing and implementing strategies.

Educational Components:

Institute for Equity in Education (IEE)

Developed and piloted with the Santa Barbara School Districts, IEE helps schools address racial and ethnic academic achievement gaps by focusing on the “4 Rs” of Relevance, Rigor, Relationships, and Racial Justice. IEE includes in-depth dismantling racism leadership training for educators, bi-lingual and cross-racial dialogue for parents, leadership development for students, cross-stakeholder action planning, and on-going support and coaching for schools and districts. Since its inception, IEE has resulted in significant culture and climate changes in the Santa Barbara School Unified School District which have led to:

- ☐ shifting the dominant narrative within SBUSD from a focus on socio-economics and parental blame to a focus on school system, social forces, and racism as key factors in the achievement gap;
- ☐ increased numbers of Latino students in honors, GATE and AP courses;
- ☐ improved academic performance for Latino students;
- ☐ increased numbers of Latino students in school leadership positions;
- ☐ increased Latino parent engagement and leadership;
- ☐ increased dialogue between Latino and White parents.

In 2007, the Institute for Democratic Renewal (IDR) at Claremont Graduate University named IEE “the most promising vehicle for eliminating racial/ethnic disparities and narrowing the educational achievement gap in the country.” IDR launched the National Educational Equity Network with IEE as its centerpiece, which has helped IEE expand to San Diego Unified Schools District where it has been part of a larger initiative that has led to tremendous progress in academic achievement at Lincoln High School. Most recently, Lincoln posted the following academic gains:

- ☐ Met 21 of 22 Adequately Yearly Progress (AYP) targets – up from 0 targets in 2007-2008;
- ☐ API growth of 47 points (significantly exceeding their target of 13 points), with subgroup increases in key areas, including...
 - African-American students quadrupling the target;
 - Latino students tripling the target;
 - Socio-economically disadvantaged students quadrupling the target;
 - English Learners/students almost tripling the target;
 - Special Education students doubling the target.

In 2009, Marian Wright Edelman, President of the Children's Defense Fund said: "If we are serious about ensuring that all children succeed, it is imperative that we courageously address the link between institutionalized racism and the academic achievement gap. Programs like Just Communities' Institute for Equity in Education are model programs that help educators do just that."

School districts from throughout the Central Coast have sent cohorts of administrators and educators through IEE, and we hope to launch a national program in the next coming year.

Example of Virtual Modules for Environmental Organization August 2020

Goal: To engage organizations working for environmental health, sustainability and justice in productive discussions about issues of DEIJ in an effort to strengthen individual organizations and the field as a whole.

Objectives:

- To build trust.
- Develop a common language.
- Be able to identify inequities, disparities, and injustice within organizations and the field as a whole.
- Develop a commitment to environmental and social justice
- Develop concrete strategies and next steps to advance environmental justice in organizations and our field as a whole.

Format: A series of seven 2-hour workshops over Zoom, each of which would include time spent in 3 modalities of work:

- The Head: This would involve Just Communities sharing JEDI-related theories and frameworks; developing a common language; brainstorming how JEDI issues and dynamics are playing out in environmental issues, organizations, and movements; etc.
- The Heart: This would include participants connecting with each other, sharing their own stories related to the JEDI topics and issues we are exploring, building trust, and deepening their connections. This would take place primarily through break-out sessions of 3-4 people each and then sharing with the full group upon returning from break-out sessions.
- The Hand: This is about developing tools and strategies; identifying how individuals, organizations and the group as a whole can apply what they are learning in their own work, organizations, and our communities as a whole; and identifying and committing to next steps and action. Some of this will be done in the Zoom meetings as a group and some will be done through assignments that will take place in between Zoom sessions.

Questions:

- How do we promote accountability?
- Would having set break-out groups help people feel safer to share in break-out groups?

- Is there a carrot we could offer people to bring them to the process? And encourage them to complete the process?
- Can we have caucus groups within the 7 sessions? Between sessions? After the 7-session series is complete?

Under Chelsea's leadership, the CARE Program received the Santa Barbara Commission for Women's 2014 Service Award citing a deep commitment to serving needy women in the County. More recently, Chelsea was featured as a Phenomenal Woman in Student Affairs by NASPA and the SPARC Program was selected to receive the prestigious John W. Chelsea proudly serves on the Board of Directors for The FUND for Santa Barbara which supports organizations working for social, economic, environmental and political change throughout Santa Barbara County. She also sits on the Advisory Board for Storyteller Children's Center, which provides quality tuition-free early childhood education for homeless and at-risk children and their families, where she and her daughter were once program participants. Chelsea was one of the driving forces to reconstitution of the Santa Barbara ACLU chapter to work most effectively on local social justice issues, with her focus areas being opposing new jail construction and bail reform. She was also active in organizing against the proposed gang injunction in Santa Barbara, which became the first in the state to be defeated at a local level. When her own daughter left home to attend Mills College in Oakland, Chelsea returned to school to complete a master's degree in Education with an emphasis in leadership and social justice.

Just Communities Mission, Vision, Core Values

Vision	Just Communities envisions an equitable and inclusive Central Coast where all people are connected, respected, and valued.
Mission	Just Communities advances justice by building leadership, fostering change, and dismantling all forms of prejudice, discrimination and oppression.
Our Work	Just Communities fosters equity and social justice in order to ensure every school, organization, and community in California's Central Coast is a place of opportunity; not a place of limitation.
Values Statements	Just Communities values . . . RESPECT: Respect leads us to recognize and validate other's experiences, needs, and opinions; value each person's "worth" as a fellow human being; seek first to understand, then be understood. (Stephen Covey); listen to others, and then act on what we hear. INTERSECTIONALITY: Just Communities believes that different forms of oppression are interconnected in ways that create a larger, more complex system that reflects the "intersection" of multiple forms of oppression. Our approach recognizes that each individual has multiple identities and that most people experience being both privileged and targeted by oppression at some point in our lives. We believe that, in the words of Audre Lorde, "There is no hierarchy of oppression," and therefore ranking one person's pain over another person's pain distracts us from our work to end oppression in all its forms. We believe that in order to fully understand one form of oppression, we need to understand all forms of oppression, and use this understanding to guide our efforts to uproot injustice wherever it exists. PARTNERSHIPS & COLLABORATION: Just Communities recognizes that partnership and collaboration are essential building blocks of progressive social change. We build trust and community by respecting our partners, honoring their strengths and enabling diverse people to come together to create a more equitable Central Coast. POWER (COLLECTIVE POWER): We recognize we can affect the lives of others through unity, a common energy, and belief in ourselves and our allies. DISMANTLING OPPRESSION: We recognize that oppression is an unnatural system and structure in which we all exist, and in order to create a society where all people are heard and respected we must all be change agents actively dismantling the forms of oppression we witness, experience, and/or participate in. WHOLE SYSTEMS CHANGE (GRASSROOTS, GRASSTOPS, ALL ALONG THE GRASS BLADE): Just Communities work is about systems change which we accomplish by working with leaders at the grassroots level (those most affected by the issues we address who may lack formal positions of power and authority, but who have a stake in equity and justice), the grasstops (formal organizational and community leaders with official positions of power and authority), and all along the grass blade (i.e. people who exist between the grassroots and grasstops at every organizational and community level).
Nondiscrimination Statement	Just Communities does not discriminate against any employee or applicant for employment because of race, sex, color, gender, gender identity, sexual orientation, disability, national origin, religion, creed, age, marital status, citizenship or authorized alien status or veteran status.
